About the YE²S Center

The Youth Education and Employment Success Center seeks to improve measurably the quality of life of New Jersey youth by expanding their educational, vocational and employment opportunities. Under a unified collaboration among urban city mayors, public schools, local community colleges, New Jersey Juvenile Justice Commission, The Nicholson Foundation, Rutgers University, Newark Public Schools, Americorps, and numerous community-based organizations, these innovative centers are strategically located and organized to ensure a safe environment, with optimal delivery of youth services. Through the commitment and teamwork of our instructors, staff and partners in the community, we are dedicated to helping our young adults to become more caring, more competent, and more contributing citizens in the state of New Jersey.

Why Say YE²S?

Garden Savings Federal Credit Union recognizes the efforts of the YE²S Center of Newark and their continued dedication to providing a better future for the youth of New Jersey. The center is committed to providing not only development opportunities, but financial literacy and education to Newark youth. The credit union is a proud partner of the YE²S Center’s Business Partner Network and we are committed to their vision and mission to help provide lifelong learning opportunities.
